

COMMUNICABLE DISEASES

Communicable Disease Control

The Communicable Disease Control Program conducts surveillance for, responds to, and attempts to limit or control the spread of any cases or clusters of infectious disease that represent a potential threat to the public's health.

Communicable Disease Reporting

For more information about Reportable Disease requirements and timelines:

- Reportable Disease List
- Communicable Disease Reporting Rules A.A.C. R9-6-202 and 203
- Reporting requirements for health care providers
- Reporting requirements for laboratories
- Reporting requirements for school, childcare facilities and shelters
- Reporting requirements for pharmacies

The Communicable Disease Program can be reached during normal business hours at: 928-402-8806 (main number) or 928-425-7714 (fax). After business hours, please call The Gila County Health Department at 928-425-3189.